Abstracts of Wills Vol II 1708-1728 (Page 385-386) Page 437.--In the name of God, Amen. September 1, 1728. I, ANDREW EMANS, of New Utrecht, in Kings County, on the Island of Nassau, being very sick. I leave to my wife Rebbecca, during her life, my whole real and personal estate for her to use for her convenience. I leave to my eldest son Henrick Emans, all that piece of land in the County of Somersett, in New Jersey, at a place commonly called Rocky Hill, being 200 acres, which he purchased of Benjamin Cole, and whereupon I have paid oe237. I also leave to him oe213, to make up the sum I have paid upon the land, oe450. I leave to my son Johanes, all those two tracts of land in the County of Hunterdon, in the Western Division of New Jersey, containing in all 610 acres. One parcel I bought of Adrian Lane, and the other of Myndert Laphever, as by deed will appear. I leave to my son Andrew, all my real estate in the town of Gravesend in Kings County; and he shall pay oe500, at the rate of oe50 yearly till the whole is paid to me or my order. I leave to my son Benjamin, all that tract of land in the county of Middlesex, New Jersey, being 300 acres, purchased of Adrien Ten Eyck. I leave to my youngest son Jacobus, all my real estate in the town of New Utrecht, where I now live, after my wife's decease, and he is to pay oe500 to my children Henrick, Johanes, Andrew, Benjamin, Ann, wife of John Verkerk, and Sarah, wife of Teunis Polhemus, and to my youngest daughter, Rebecca Emans. And the remainder of the oe500 to be paid by my son Andrew, which may be unpaid at the time of my decease is also to be paid to them. I will that my three daughters have out of my estate oe350. "My children who shall hereafter marry shall have as good a setting out as my children who are already married." After my wife's decease all my personal estate is to go to my eight children. I appoint my wife and my sons Hendrick and Johan, and my sons-in-law, John Verkerk and Teunis Polhemus, executors.

Signed, ANDRIES EMANS

Witnesses: Hendrick Jansen, Jacobus Emans, S. Gerritsen.

John Montgomerie, Esq., Captain-General and Governor. To all, etc., Know ye, that at New York, on the 6 day of January, 1728, before Isaac Robin, Esq., the will of ANDREW EMANS was proved.

Notes

Benjamin Emans was born about the to-be-constructed Third Avenue. Wynant, his brothers, and six others, purchased 25 August 1751 a strip of land 12-1/2 feet wide across the neck of Red Hook which was the northern shore of Gowanus Bay. As part of the agreement, it was stipulated the seller, Isaac Sebring, was to make a ditch at least six feet deep the full length of the strip. The ditch was to be used as a canal, permitting its owners to avoid the danger of navigating around Red Hook.
